Welcome to my new season of SING CARE AWAY workshops !

All workshops are suitable for beginner singers with limited technique, although others with more experience will have a great time as well!

Word booklets will be supplied for most of the songs but others will be taught from printed sheet music. You do not need to be able to 'read the dots' as I will teach all the parts.

The sociable lunch and tea breaks afford opportunities to get to know your fellow singers. All refreshments and music are included in the fee.

Last summer's day of singing in the seventh century chapel of Saint Peter's on the Wall at Bradwell was so successful that I shall be repeating it this year. The setting, the acoustics and the unique atmosphere of the chapel will make this a very special day. As before, the Othona Community will be providing all refreshments.
